THE SECRET AGENT

He's stealthy. He's creative. He knows no boundaries. Frank Clark is one of the most successful real estate agents you never heard of. Clark created Real Select International a mere 5 years ago, and quietly built a real estate empire benefitting investors and developers, especially those looking to entice Japanese clientele.

So what does success look like for Real Select International?

- Secured equity for several prominent condominium projects throughout Honolulu
- In partnership with a Japanese brokerage company, successfully sold 30 units at the One Ala Moana, resulting in a SOLD OUT project in just over a day
- Received Top Sales award from Ritz Carlton Residences at Waikiki for both Tower 1 and Tower 2

- One of the top selling companies for the Japanese market at the luxury, Park Lane project
- Exclusive broker for The Residence at Makiki development
- Ranked number 3 in Pacific Business News 'Fastest 50' in 2014
- Initiated & closed recent Kapolei Golf Course sale.
- Birthed the concept of "The Waikiki Yokocho," a gastronomic experience of the Japanese culture. It comprises the entire ground floor at the Waikiki Shopping Plaza, scheduled opening date of summer 2016.

Clark's success comes from his contacts and his 'out of the box' approach. Although a realtor, Clark is really more of a real estate match maker for both the residential and commercial markets. Fluent in Japanese and cognizant of the culture, Clark spent decades building relationships with real estate investors in Japan. Now, he matches investors from his network with real estate opportunities here in Hawaii. If he can't find a deal - he creates one.

Clark's network of investors continue to grow. They trust him because he treats every transaction like it's his own, turning down several multi-million dollar deals because it didn't feel right for his client. For Clark, it's not about the money, it's the value of the relationship. That is what it's all about for Frank Clark...a secret agent for his many international friends.
